(Company Name)

To Whom It May Concern:

Please consider this letter as the above referenced company's representation of the following:

1. We do not have any U.S. investors.
2. We do not solicit U.S. citizens for the purpose of investing in, or trading commodity futures, security futures, commodity futures options, or security futures options.
3. We are not registered with National Futures Association or the Commodity Futures Trading Commission because we are not required to be so registered, nor are we conducting any activity that would require us to register.
4. We are properly licensed and/or authorized to conduct business in the jurisdiction of our incorporation or organization.
5. We are not prohibited from trading commodity futures, security futures, commodity futures options, or security futures options in the U.S.

Sincerely,
